

Target Backing Plate: Delivery, Inspection and Installation

Delivery of the ordered target holder (backing plate), followed by dimensional inspection and X-ray examination. Subsequently, leak testing of the water lines and vacuum. Installed in the sputter system and tested.

Everything is in order. Next step is to decide which target material will be mounted on it.

I contacted the supplier about manufacturing a magnetron. They asked for more information or for the component to be sent to them.

