

Contribution ID: 453

Type: Oral Presentation

Testing universality of gauge theories

Wednesday, August 10, 2022 5:30 PM (20 minutes)

Using different observables we test the approach to the continuum limit of several lattice gauge actions. We use lattice spacings in the range that are usually found in typical lattice QCD simulations. As observables we use different flow observables. This allows to check the scaling properties of the different discretizations with high statistical precision.

Primary authors: RAMOS, Alberto (University of Valencia - IFIC); RAMOS MARTINEZ, Alberto (IFIC); TELO, Guilherme (IFIC - Valencia)

Presenters: RAMOS, Alberto (University of Valencia - IFIC); RAMOS MARTINEZ, Alberto (IFIC)

Session Classification: Theoretical Developments

Track Classification: Theoretical Developments and Applications beyond Particle Physics